Exceptional Investment & Further Development Opportunity in Constantia Upper

On sought-after Price Drive, this property offers two freestanding homes on just under an acre, each with its own separate entrance, north-facing orientation, and elevated mountain views. Beyond its current use, the real value lies in its future development potential.

With the option to sectionalize, the property can be transformed into a mini estate, unlocking significant value through resale, rental, or a combination of both. Each home already functions independently, generating premium rental income, while the erf layout allows for the addition of a third dwelling, further enhancing returns.

This is a rare chance to secure a flexible, income-producing asset in one of Cape Town's most prestigious addresses. Perfect for developers seeking sectional title opportunities or investors wanting a high-yield, long-term hold in...
